Packs—This State Should Dominate Hunting In America.

A question which has caused all sorts of trouble in Virginia for years past at the various horse shows is, "What hunt club here's how in a hunt team class one must be a member of a "recognized" hunt. There have been many disputes, much hard feeling and no little money less on account of contentions arising from the lack of knowledge as to what constitutes a "recognized hunt," and from the absence of an official of the recognized hunt. The Times-Dispatch now prints such an official list, compiled on February 7th, by Mr. H. G. Crickmore, secretary 7th, by Mr. H. G. Crickmore, secreta REDLAWN, VA., February 10.—The ground is still covered with snow, and it looks as if it is waiting for more, as it is now quite cloudy. All of our peeple have filled their [cehouses, and are happy, Mr. A. L. Bustard has recently sold his farm, near here, known as Buena Vista, to a Mr. Griffin, from Nevada, This sale was made through the Ronnoke Land and Development Company, and Mr. Bustard got a very satisfactory price for his place. The price was $5,250, or between $18 and $20 per acre.

Mr. Griffin, with his wife and child, has moved in, and has gone to fencing the place, and expects to make a model stock farm of the place.

Mr. Stepherd, who recently bought a farm adjoining the lands bought by Mr. Griffin, has turned his attention mostly to the raising of hogs and mules on a large scale.

Ryan Wants to Fight Mellody. CHICAGO, February 10.—Tomm Ryan, middleweight champion, is nov desirious of adding another belt to his list. That is the welterweight trophy. He declared when he returned trophy. He declared when he returned from Hot Springs, where he disposed of Dave Barry in five rounds, that he would like to settle all the talk about his being a heavyweight. To get away from that he says he will challenge Bill Mellody and fight him for the title he holds. This means that Ryan will have to get down to 142 or 145 pounds, which seems almost impossible for him. Ryan's ambition to do a lot of fighting is stirred up now, and he declares he will do almost anything to get a match.

GREAT INTEREST IN BOWLING

their dullest season of the year, and little else to do than to draw conclusions from the past and to prophesy concerning the future, which, though affording much food for thought, is generally futile in the end. Gossip for the most part is now being taken up with baseball, and the garrulous and loosetongued are having a happy time of it in winning games that have never been, and never will be, played, talking of victories that most people have forgotten, and forecasting as to who will win the pennant in the various leagues. Sports lovers and sportsmen themselves have little else to do, and all are anxiously awaiting the coming of spring, when the diamond heroes will be acting instead of talking, and fans will have some basis for their gossip.

In Richmond the week will pass without special event save the usual bowling games, the skating contests and the weekly drag of the Deep Rin Hunt Club.

Bowling is being rapidly taken up by the ladies, for whom special matinee evenings are being reserved at the Lake alleys. The gentler sex are finding it a very popular pastime, and many of them may be seen any eveing at the Lake alleys rolling up scoret, not very far behind those of the men. As soon as they become more proficient in the game. Manager Whitman will probably endeavor to organize a league among them, which will be league among them, which will be placed on as important a footing as placed on as important a footing as the leagues formed among the men.

The usual games of the Richmond City League will be held to-night at the Williams and Cooke alleys, with the weekly prize night on Wednesday. The teams of the Greater Richmond League will play their weekly games, beginning to-night.

The most important event in the bowling world last week was the match game for the championship played Saturday morning between Whitman and Thorpe.

This is the time of the year when ball-tossers "are just crazy for the season to begin." By May ist most of them are wishing it was over.

Clark Griffith may take Pitcher Gus Munch, of Chicago, down to Atlanta for a trial, Munch is the young twirler recommended by Jimmy Callahan.

Charley Murphy, of the Cubs, is trying to get Porcy Skillen to promise his services to Chicago when the Dartmouth pitcher gets ready to turn professional.

It is the opinion of many in baseball who have watched Matty Pitzgerald that he will make a first-class catcher under the teaching of John McGraw. All "Matty" has to learn is to get the ball away quick to get the fast men stealing.

Baseball players and others are of the opinion that Brockett, the new addition to the Yankee pitching staff, will be of great service to Griffith in the box. He is a big, strong fellow, can hit the ball, and is a good fielder. What more does a manager want?
